Natalie Merchant & Tom Waits - I Hope That I Don't Fall In Love With You

```
Well I hope that I don't fall in love with you
  'Cause falling in love just makes me blue,
  Well the music plays and you display
  Your heart for me to see,
  I had a beer and now I hear you
 Calling out for me
 And I hope that I dont fall in love with you.
 Well the room is crowded, people everywhere
 And I wonder, should I offer you a chair?
 Well if you sit down with this old clown,
 Take that frown and break it,
 Before the evening's gone away,
      Am
 I think that we could make it,
 And I hope that I don't fall in love with you.
Well the night does funny things inside a man
These old tom-cat feelings you don't understand,
Well I turn around to look at you,
     Am
You light a cigarette,
I wish I had the guts to bum one,
But we've never met,
And I hope that I don't fall in love with you.
                                                      Now it's closing time, the music's fading out
I can see that you are lonesome just like me,
                                                      Last call for drinks, I'll have another stout.
And it being late, you'd like some company,
                                                      Well I turn around to look at you,
Well I turn around to look at you,
                                                      You're nowhere to be found,
    Am
And you look back at me,
                                                      I search the place for your lost face,
The guy you're with has up and split,
                                                      Guess I'll have another round
The chair next to you's free,
                                                     And I think that I just fell in love with you.
And I hope that you don't fall in love with me.
